

A V A

There are several philosophies behind our wine selections. Firstly, all of our offerings are smaller family owned wines. We find that the artisan producers are also the wineries that make a higher quality of wine, with more passion in the bottle.

The second consideration is to include the many distinct AVAs from California.

Many of the regions are up and coming, many of the varietals are little known; each wine is distinctive and representative of great passion.

The final decisions are based on the taste in the bottle.

We hope you try something new and enjoy these wines as much as we have!
